

MISS RODEO GLENNVILLE PAGEANT

Official Rules & Regulations

Revised March 16, 2021

MISS RODEO GLENNVILLE PAGEANT

The Miss Rodeo Glennville Pageant is held annually to select a young lady who has the desire and enthusiasm to serve as a goodwill ambassador for the sport of professional rodeo and the Greenhorn Mountain Veterans Association (GMVA). The GMVA and the Miss Rodeo Glennville Pageant Committee has pledged to make the pageant memorable for each contestant. The Pageant Committee is confident that the Miss Rodeo Glennville Queen, Junior Queen, and Princess chosen will represent her rodeo and this city in a grand manner, while promoting the sport of professional rodeo.

WHO IS MISS RODEO GLENNVILLE?

Miss Rodeo Glennville symbolizes the youth of our rodeo, our town, and those who promote the sport of rodeo, and in doing so, promote the great western way of life. She is an ideal western type American girl who has an appealing appearance, a congenial personality, and knowledge of the equine industry, the community of Glennville, and the sport of professional rodeo. She is a young lady who enjoys travel and has a sincere interest in garnering educational experiences that will assist in laying a solid foundation for her future.

WHAT TYPE OF YOUNG LADY DOES THE MISS RODEO GLENNVILLE PAGEANT ATTRACT?

- The young lady who wishes to be a representative of her state, the town of Glennville, and the sport of professional rodeo.
- The young lady who loves horses, rodeo, and everything they represent.
- The young lady who portrays unmatched sportsmanship, high moral values, and an ethical character.
- The young lady who understands and loves the sport of professional rodeo and who has enough knowledge of the sport to promote it to someone who may know nothing of the sport.
- The ambitious young lady who is interested in furthering her chosen career through higher education and special training.
- The young lady who is able to speak intelligently and display dignity in all types of situations.
