

MISS RODEO GLENNVILLE QUEEN, JUNIOR QUEEN & PRINCESS PAGEANT

Official Rules & Regulations

Revised June 30, 2021

MISS RODEO GLENNVILLE PAGEANT

The Miss Rodeo Glennville Pageant is held annually to select a young lady who has the desire and enthusiasm to serve as a goodwill ambassador for the sport of professional rodeo and the Greenhorn Mountain Veterans Association (GMVA). The GMVA and the Miss Rodeo Glennville Pageant Committee have pledged to make the pageant memorable for each contestant. The Pageant Committee is confident that the Miss Rodeo Glennville Queen, Junior Queen, Princess and Tiny Princess chosen will represent her rodeo and this city in a grand manner, while promoting the sport of Professional Rodeo.

WHO IS MISS RODEO GLENNVILLE?

Miss Rodeo Glennville symbolizes the youth of our rodeo, our town, and those who promote the sport of rodeo, and in so doing, promote the great western way of life. She is an ideal western-type American girl who has an appealing appearance, a congenial personality, and knowledge of the equine industry, the community of Glennville, and the sport of professional rodeo. She is a young lady who enjoys travel and has a sincere interest in garnering educational experiences that will assist in laying a solid foundation for her future.

WHAT TYPE OF YOUNG LADY DOES THE MRG PAGEANT ATTRACT?

- The young lady who wishes to be a representative of her state, the town of Glennville, and the sport of professional rodeo.
- The young lady who loves horses, rodeo and everything they represent.
- The young lady who portrays unmatched sportsmanship, high moral values, and an ethical character.
- The young lady who understands and loves the sport of professional rodeo and who has enough knowledge of the sport to promote it to someone who may know nothing of the sport.
- The ambitious young lady who is interested in furthering her chosen career through higher education and special training.
- The young lady who is able to speak intelligently and display dignity in all types of situations.

4. At any event requiring the contestants to be mounted, each contestant shall provide the horse to be used by her, together with all necessary saddles, bridles, and/or other equipment, and, at her sole cost and expense, transport the horse to and from the site of the function.
5. Each contestant shall provide her own transportation to each such function, performance, and/or event unless otherwise instructed by Miss Rodeo Glennville Committee.
6. The Miss Rodeo Glennville Committee shall have the sole right to publish or cause the publication in any media, and use in any reasonable manner, the name, basic biographical background and photograph of each contestant for the purpose of the promotion of the Rodeo Queen Pageant.
7. Contestants shall not, without the permission of the Miss Rodeo Glennville Committee publish or allow the name, photograph or biographical data of any contestant in any public media in any matter whatsoever as to suggest any connection with or participation in the Rodeo Queen Contest.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All rules and regulations listed within this document are subject to change without notice at the discretion of the Greenhorn Mountain Veterans Association (GMVA) and/or the Miss Rodeo Glennville Pageant Committee.
2. Contestants must conduct themselves in a proper lady-like manner and portray high moral standards. Contestants will not be permitted to drink alcoholic beverages, smoke, or use foul language at any time during pageant functions. Contestants may not at any point during their tenure as contestant and/or title holder show publicly any semblance of relationship with a significant other or be housed with them during any representation. Violation of these rules could result in immediate disqualification at the discretion of the Miss Rodeo Glennville Pageant Committee and GMVA Board of Directors.
3. Each contestant will be responsible for submitting a photograph with their application. The photos will be a head and shoulder pose in western attire. Western attire will include long-sleeved western blouse, suit, or dress, hat and accessories. The photos will be used for publicity purposes during the pageant and rodeo weekend.
4. A contestant or any individual with the intent to influence or harass may not approach a judge or the auditor before or after any event. Action of this type will be reported to the Miss Rodeo Glennville Pageant Committee and disqualification of that contestant could result.

5. Each contestant will provide horses and tack necessary for the horsemanship competition.
6. Contestants MAY NOT WEAR SPURS OR CHAPS during the horsemanship competition.
7. Queen contestants will be expected to present an impromptu speech, at least 1 ½ minutes in length, composed during the speech and modeling portion. Contestants will also be interviewed by the judges during the pageant.
8. Contestants must provide their own transportation to and from all rodeo functions.
9. Contestants must also be punctual. Contestants arriving late to any event will lose five points per event to which they are tardy. Keep in mind the idea that, “If you are early, you are on time. If you are on time, you are late.”
10. All contestants must sign a Waiver of Liability, and the official Pageant Application. If the contestant is under the age of 18, a parent or guardian must also sign a consent form along with the liability form.
11. Contestants must provide their own wardrobe and agree to follow the wardrobe guidelines outlined within this document

WARDROBE GUIDELINES

These guidelines are subject to change, in which case all applicants will be notified.

1. Each contestant should have at least one complete western style pant suit, or a coordinating skirt & blouse, or a dress, with accessories (belt, hat & boots), for the speech & modeling and personal interview portions of the pageant. Jeans (denim) are not suitable for the speech & modeling portion of the competition; dress slacks with a dress jacket would be acceptable.
 2. Each contestant should have at least one complete horsemanship outfit and accessories for the horsemanship riding competition. This should consist of “Wrangler” brand jeans of any color, a coordinating or complimenting blouse with long sleeves and shirt tails tucked in, a belt, and a cowboy hat.
 3. Each contestant will have one complete outfit for Sunday’s parade, coronation ceremony, & rodeo performance, which will consist of “Wrangler” brand jeans, a complimenting blouse, belt, cowboy hat, and boots. The blouse should be made of a bright material as to make coronation ceremony colorful. Suggestions for blouse include using sequined material, embellished velvet, and/or fringe.
- No chaps are to be worn for the horsemanship competition or other pageant functions.

SELECTION PROCESS

At any time and place to be determined in the sole discretion of the Miss Rodeo Glennville Committee, one (1) Rodeo Queen, (1) Junior Queen, (1) Rodeo Princess, and (1)

Tiny Princess shall be selected from those contestants who have complied with all reasonable directions of the Miss Rodeo Glennville Committee. There will be two runner-up winners for each title. Contestants must have participated faithfully throughout the competition in a manner consistent with acting as the Glennville Rodeo Queen. No other contestant shall be deemed eligible for such positions under these rules.

The selection of the Royal Court consisting of the Queen, Junior Queen, Princess, Tiny Princess, and their court shall be by majority vote of a panel of not less than (4) judges appointed at the sole discretion of Miss Rodeo Glennville Committee.

The procedure to be followed by the panel of judges in selecting the Rodeo Queen, Junior Queen, Princess, and the Little Princess shall be as follows:

COMPETITION:

1. Categories

a. Queen, Junior Queen, Princess

- i. Those contestants who are eligible for consideration as Rodeo Queen, Junior Queen, or Princess, under these rules shall be ranked in descending numerical sequence by a percentage which reflects the relative number of points earned in the following categories:

- Horsemanship shall account for 25% of the Pageant.
- Personality and Appearance shall account for 25% of the Pageant.
- Speech & Modeling and Personal Interview shall account for 25% of the Pageant.
- Rodeo & Equine Knowledge shall account for 25% of the Pageant.
- Additionally, contestants can earn “bonus” points based on their level of ticket and/or sponsor sales.

b. Little Princess

- i. Those contestants who are eligible for consideration as Tiny Princess, under these rules shall be ranked in descending numerical sequence by a percentage which reflects the relative number of points earned in the following categories:

- Personality and Appearance shall account for 25% of the Pageant.

 - iv. Rodeo & Equine Knowledge will be equal to 25% of the total score achievable and will be based on the contestant's score on answers to questions asked at anytime by the judges as well as the written test score and Equine and Rodeo Knowledge Interview.
- c. The contestant receiving the highest number of combined total points in all categories, plus any additional points earned from ticket or sponsor sales, pursuant to the foregoing, shall be named the Rodeo Queen, Junior Queen, Princess, and Tiny Princess. Receiving the second and third highest number of points shall be the First Runner-up and Second Runner-up, and so on.
 - d. Resulting ties in individual categories will be broken by the Head Judge's (Judge #1) score in that individual category. Judge #1 scores will break the tie. Any tie for the overall contest (i.e. Queen, Junior Queen, Princess, or Little Princess) will also be broken by the Head Judge's overall contest scores.
 - e. Each contestant may review her personal scores following the Pageant.
 - f. No contestant or person on the contestant's behalf shall be in direct contact with any of the judges, or the auditor.
 - g. Judges decisions are final!
